Museum Passes are Back!
Now, Plainsboro Public Library cardholders gain free admission to select museums. This program is made possible by Friends of the Plainsboro Library and LibraryLinkNJ’s Level Up Your Library mini-grant. Visit plainsborolibrary.org/museum-passes to view our online calendar and availability, book a reservation, or cancel your request.

Lunar New Year Celebration
Saturday, February 3, 1pm - 3pm
Plainsboro Library welcomes all community members to our 2024 Lunar New Year Celebration. Learn about and experience a variety of cultural traditions from the people and countries who celebrate Lunar New Year through music, art, and dance. Red envelopes and candy generously donated by the Asian Food Markets of Plainsboro.

Construction Update
The 3rd Floor is closed through Spring 2024; all youth items and programs have been relocated elsewhere in the building. For construction updates or to learn where and how to avail children’s materials, visit plainsborolibrary.org/yes-project. To know about a program’s location, call us or visit plainsborolibrary.org/events.

Events for Kids and Teens

Library @ The Plainsboro Preserve

Nature and Stories
Wednesdays (Feb 7 – Mar 6) - 10:30 am. Ages 3-5
Join Miss Maureen at the Plainsboro Preserve for stories about animals and nature. Followed by crafts and outdoor activities (weather permitting) by the Preserve staff. Every week will be a different theme. Registration recommended. This event will take place at the Plainsboro Preserve.

Environmental Heroes Book Club
Thursdays (Jan 4, Feb 1, Mar 7) - 4:30 pm. Grades 3-5
Interested in learning more about people who work to protect the environment? Join the "Environmental Heroes Book Club!" This club is for 3rd-5th graders and will take place at the Plainsboro Preserve. Each month, we will read a short biography about a figure who made significant contributions to protecting the environment. During book club meetings, participants will discuss the books selected for that month, and then complete a STEAM or learning activity related to the book. Registration required.

Library Closings
Christmas Eve: December 24th
Christmas Day: December 25th
New Years Eve: December 31st
New Years Day: January 1st
